$500 REWARD tarrh in the Head which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATAREM.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges failing from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, macous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak and watery; there is a ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from uleers; the voice is changed and has a "msal twang"; the breath is offensive; smell and hoste are impaired, there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above simptoms, result in consumption and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Hemedy cures the worst asses of Catarrh, "Cold in the Head," Boryns, and Catarrhai Headache. old by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: Some ten years ago I anflered untold agony from chronic masal calarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my conghing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Gatarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2002 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarth for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckly, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarth Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarth now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

A complete Treatise on Catarrh, giving valuable hints as to clothing, diet and other matters of importance, will be mailed, post-paid to any address, on receipt of a two-cent postage stamp.
